National Library Week Begins April 12, "Reading Is Key"

"Reading Is The Key" is the theme for the observance of National Library Week. The purpose of celebrating such a week is as follows:

1. To encourage lifetime reading habits

2. To increase people's use of libraries

3. To expand and to improve the total reading and library resources of the nation.

The Appomattox County Library with approximately 30,000 volumes of book ranging in reading levels from the pre-school age child to that of adulthood, is ever anxious to provide the citizens of this county with good reading materials.

May we suggest for your reading pleasure:

Convention by Fletcher Knebel & Charles Bailey —The year is 1972 and the Republican presidential convention is meeting in Chicago to name a candidate for the book cannot six days in August. No facet of American political life can compare with the presidential nominating convention for excitement, tension and round the clock maneuvering.

The authors, both newspapermen, who live and work in Washington, D. C., have collaborated on a previous novel, Seven Days in May which has become a very popular book and on the best seller list for 49 weeks.

There is an interesting exhibit of Birds and beasts will be in the County library for the month of April. The library is open Monday through Fridays from 9 a.m. — 4 p.m. If there should be sufficient number of requests for opening the library for one evening each, week, the suggestion will be heeded. IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear Mother, Mrs. A. B. Ferguson, who passed away sixteen years ago, April 9, 1949.

Sixteen long years ago, dear Mother
You quietly slipped away,
To rest in the arms of Jesus,
We will never forget that day

Some may think we have forgotten you,
When they see us smile,
But they little know the sorrow,
That we suffer all the while.
No one knows our sorrow,
A few have seen us weep
But the way our hearts ache
For you, dear Mother.
And wish you were here to guide us along,
As you always did,
All we can do now, dear Mother,
Is remember the lesson you taught us.
And try to live the way you taught us.

For we know you are safe with Jesus,
Where we never grow old,
And waiting to greet us when we get there,
As we go to your grave and place flowers.
We pray that some day we will meet you,
In that land where we never grow old.
Sadly missed by, Your children and grandchildren. 4-9-1p

In loving memory of our daddy T. M. Martin, who left us 13 years ago, April 13.
The years may wipe out many things,
But this they wipe out never,
The memory of those happy days
When we were all together.
Sadly missed by his children. 4-9-1t

BALDWIN —In sad but loving remembrance of Aurelivus A. Baldwin, who passed away seventeen years ago, April 12, 1947.
Many years have passed dear father
Since the day you went away
But I think about you
Often and I miss you every day.
Some of my cherished memories
Are the songs you love to sing
And some day I hope to join YOU.
Sadly missed by Daughter. 4-1p

Load-Easiest pickup in Virginia!

You flip Ford's new tailgate open and shut with one hand. Yet it's so strong it can take a ton of weight!
Look, no hooks! Ford's center latch operates husky catches at both sides of the tailgate. As the gate swings down, heavy steel straps unfold to support it. Simple—and strong, like the new Styleside box with double-sidewall construction. Come try the new '64 Ford, the tough truck that makes everything easier for you. Including saving money!
